Students planned and facilitated Saturday School sessions at one of our district Middle Schools. They shared the LA Artworks field trip experience, including the different types of street art. The students participated in a Kahoot based on their presentation and then created and applied a stencil to a butcher-paper "wall."